

HR Professional of The Year

Nomination Submission Form Due On Or Before March 13th, 2020

The goal of these awards is to spotlight Human Resources professionals in New Mexico who elevate the profession, who serve as a role models for their peers, and set the standard for other HR professionals to follow. We're looking for those who demonstrate integrity, leadership, innovation, and strategic thinking and who have a knowledge of and passion for Human Resources. We would like to tell their stories and to recognize their contributions and achievements. The only requirement is the recipients must be current practitioners of Human Resources in NM for an organization(s) serving employees working in NM.

The award winners will be announced on Tuesday, April 21, 2020 during our HR: Power Up! State Conference. (Event registration/SHRM membership/HR certification not required to win.)

One winner for businesses with fewer than 50 employees and one winner with 50 or more employees will receive the following:

- A commemorative trophy
- Presentation of the award at the conference, as well as at the winner's workplace, and at the winner's local SHRM chapter meeting
- Recognition on the SHRM NM website and possibly other media
- Complimentary registration to the 2021 SHRM NM Conference (Current value up to $600; not transferable)
